33 DELUXE SETS

SLIGHTLY DAMAGED

AT COST

AT the close of every busy season we have left 33 sets of "The Masterpieces and History of Literature," in which a few volumes are slightly marked—not enough to impair their real value, but sufficiently to prevent their shipment as perfect stock at the regular price, $35.00 a set. Rather than go to the expense of rebinding these few sets, we will close them out at about the actual cost of the sheets and on little easy monthly payments.

The Masterpieces and History of Literature

The best and most satisfactory work of its kind ever published. Contains complete selections from all the leading authors, a history of literature, a short biographical sketch of authors, critical essays on the literature of each period, etc., etc. Edited by Julian Hawthorne, assisted by many of the foremost writers and critics of the day. Complete in 10 massive volumes, containing 5,000 pages and over 1,000 illustrations, including portraits of famous authors. The binding is in half leather and a deluxe style.

The Gist of Everything Worth Reading

This is the one indispensable library for the home. It takes the place of thousands of separate books, giving the best and most important works of all authors in convenient and attractive form. Complete novels and chapters of fiction, romances, sketches, poetry, philosophy, history, travel, science, anatomy, letters, essays, translations from foreign literatures, brief description of the world's great books, biographies of authors, etc., etc.—all are included. It is a wonderful library in its own right, a handy and best of all a treasure— the chaff separated from the wheat. No one can afford to be without it.
