Cyclopaedia of Practical Quotations

Compiled by J. K. HOYT

Over thirty thousand choice quotations, embracing an comprehensive list of subjects with which right thinking men are concerned; also an Appendix containing quotations from the modern foreign languages as in Latin, German, etc. Every quotation is selected with discrimination as to its pertinence to the subject of which it treats, its prominence and authority of its author, and its probable usefulness to the user. The wide popularity of the cyclopaedia among the literary and professional men and the emphatic commendations from high authorities have abundantly attested the value of the work. Writers, speakers, lawyers, ministers, teachers and others who have occasion to strengthen their beauty of their written or spoken words by quotations.
